Established in 1959, a. hartrodt italiana is one of the oldest setups of the a. hartrodt group of companies outside Germany and is operating today from the head-office based in Genoa, in charge of sea-freight activities and administration and from its branch in Milan, in charge of air-freight and truck transportation services.

a. hartrodt italiana is accredited IATA agent since 1982 and obtained the AEO-S certification in August 2013, as a guarantee of full compliance to international security standards and regulations.

With 1,500 m² of dedicated sub-contracted warehouse in Milano, inclusive of a cool storage section and bonded area, a. hartrodt italiana is fully equipped to handle all sorts of air-freight, sea-freight and on-wheel consolidation services, in import and in export.

Through its network of certified logistic partners, a. hartrodt italiana is in the position to offer and coordinate any import or export activity via all Italian ports and airports. Customs clearance services are offered locally through a list of licensed sub-contractors.

The new integrated 2,500 m² warehouse includes temperature controlled areas. It allows us to offer our clients not only pure warehousing, pick & pack and distribution services, but also and most of all a consolidation hub, able to serve the whole Mediterranean area extended to Switzerland and Austria for groupage services to over 15 destinations. Additionally our warehouse has obtained authorizations from the customs authorities for approved place, temporary storage, authorized consignee and known consignor.
